Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed on 6/20/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

- a. The applicant argued with respect to claims 1, 12 and 22 that the cited art does not specifically disclose the applicants claimed best effort service.

The examiner contends that the claimed limitation, interpreted within it broadest sense is taught within Le Gouriellec, where Le Gouriellec teaches discarding packets, where the feature of discarding packets is a common feature of the best effort service, and is reasonably equivalent to a best effort service.

The examiner further contends that the claim does not specify or define best effort services, where interpreted broadly is defined as such:

A "Best Effort" service is one which does not provide full reliability. It usually performs some error control (e.g. discarding all frames which may have been corrupted) and may also provide some (limited) retransmission (e.g. CSMA/CD). The delivered data is not however guaranteed

Clearly the discarding of packets is a service of the best effort services, so is therefore applied reasonably to the rejection of claims 1, 12 and 22.
